Dedications

Dr. Dan White

It is with extreme gratification that El Espejo dedicates the 1984-85 yearbook to Dr. Dan White. Ever since he first came to Webb in 1979, his presence has brought patience, understanding, and wisdom to students and faculty alike. Through his persistence and indispensable aid, Webb has evolved into more of a homogeneous community and simply a better place to be. We applaud his enduring efforts and good nature and wish him the best of luck in the future as Headmaster of Webb School.

Ever since this extraordinary lady first set foot on our Alma Mater this fall, she has inspired the Webb community with her eminent leadership and qualities of mind. In addition, she has enriched the Webb Schools culturally by bringing with her the exotic flavor of the eastern coast. Besides teaching, her main responsibilities include developing and implementing the educational goals of VWS and serving as the chair of the Curriculum Committee of the Webb Schools. Before joining the Webb community, she had been the Headmistress of St. Timothy's School in Maryland for 13 years. During her spare time, she enjoys going to the theater, golfing, skiing, and tending her garden. It is with sincere hope for her continued success as the second Headmistress to VWS that we dedicate the 1984-85 El Espejo to Miss Jean Miller.

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't"
but he would be one Who wouldn't say so till he tried.
So he buckled right in on his face. If he worried, he hid it.

He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done,

That corner in the drive, too, where the trees encroach upon the gravel is not a place in which to pause, not after the sun has set. When the leaves rustle, they sound very much like the stealthy movement of a woman in an evening dress, and when they shiver suddenly, and fall, and scatter away along the ground, they might be the patter, patter of a woman's hurrying footsteps, and the mark in the gravel the imprint of a high-heeled satin shoe.

And in the room locked up inside me
The old magazines remind me
I'm and wait alone in my room

And in my room against the wall
There's a picture very small
A photograph I took some years ago
It shows a picture of a room I knew I was and wait alone
in my room

The walls are white
And in the night
The room is lit by electric light

I stand alone and watch the clock
I only wait for it to stop
The doors are shut and all the windows locked
And the only sound is from the clock
I stand and wait alone

What it depends on what we see
D. Coffin

I want somebody to share
Share the rest of my life
Share my innermost thoughts
Know my intimate details
Someone who'll stand by my side
And give me support
And in return
She'll get my support
She will listen to me
When I want to speak
About the world we live in
And life in general
Though my views may be wrong
They may even be perverted
She will hear me out
And won't easily be converted
To my way of thinking
In fact she'll often disagree
But at the end of it all
She will understand me

Don't know why
You should feel
That there's something to learn
It's just a game that you play
A. Stewart

It's been an uphill but a satisfying four years
We're all heading out to new frontiers
As the curtain closes and I take my final bow I'd just like to mention a few people who mean a lot to me:
Rob and Will- I think you understand- Fox table-
Curtis
Erik, Julia, Ami, and Chris- L.O.G. lives!
My Foothill friends- We share a common bond Always
My Latin teachers- Howell, David, and Jeff- You taught me to learn
Julie- Hugs and kisses- Good Luck! Smiling
Claudia- You mean more to me than you think Chris Trussell- Thanks for putting music in my life
Marilyn Blum- I can't thank you enough
Somebody- I love you
Mom and Dad- Thank you for your countless faith and support

Thank you everybody. I can only mention these few. I will never forget. Bryce-Yosemite Joshua Tree (3x)-Disneyland
Michael J's-Mongolian BBQ (1)-Hacky-
31 days of Summer '84-Everything was beautiful, and nothing hurt. Thanks for the memories

I want somebody who cares
For me passionately
With every thought and with every breath
Someone who'll help me see things
In a different light
All the things I detest
I will almost like
I don't want to be tied
To anyone's strings
I'm carefully trying to steer clear
Of those things
But when I'm asleep
I want somebody
Who will put their arms around me
And kiss me tenderly
Though things like this Make me sick
In a case like this
I'll get away with it.

The Road goes ever on and on Out from the door where it began
Now far ahead the Road has gone
Let others follow it who can!
Let them a journey now begin
But I at last with weary feet
Will turn towards the lighted inn
My evening-rest and sleep to meet

Frodo Baggins

Far better it is to dare mighty things to win glorious triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to take rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffered much, because they live in the gray twilight that knows not victory nor defeat.

If it works, don't fix it.

To L.M.G.
The world weighs on my shoulders.
But what am I to do?
You sometimes drive me crazy.
But I worry about you.
I know it makes no difference.
To what you're going through.
But I see the tip of the iceberg.
And I worry about you.
-Rush

To someone I used to know.
Once you were my closest confidante - now we never talk. I guess three years changes a lot, but it seemed so sudden. Oh well, life goes on. Good luck. I wish only that I could hope you would know yourself for the person to whom I speak.

Will Montgomery

I have recently discovered that I like life. I have come to terms with my past, and I have (high!) hopes for the future. One thing only: This is my life we're talking about here - I'll pass on the suspense, thank you very much.

That life is worth living is the most necessary of assumptions, and were it not assumed, the most impossible of conclusions.
-Santayana

Fight the good fight every moment.
Every minute, every day.
Fight the good fight every moment.

Everything is relative. To us, a six pack has to do with beer, on Mars it could be a bra.

Some are born to move the world.
To live their fantasies.
But most of us just dream about
The things we'd like to be.

Sadder still to watch it die.
Than never to have known it.
For you the blind who once could see.
The bell tolls for thee.

Some people call it a one night stand.
But we can call it Paradise.
-Duran Duran

To someone far away.
Let us go forth together and learn.
let us live together and laugh together and cry together and teach each other and become educated together as we did once before.
The adventure awaits - I'm gone, and there's no one I'd rather have at my side.

Anguishable notes of melancholy.

Celco announces the latest in super-sensitivity for airborne
CRT displays.

The CELCO SXY-500 is the most sensitive 1/2 inch neck CRT deflection Yoke ever produced for airborne displays. The base for the navigational system of the future.

Drawing on CELCO's twenty-two years of design and manufacture of cathode ray tubes for high resolution CRT displays, CELCO Engineers created a new generation of high speed, high resolution tubes for 7.8 inch neck CRT's. Featuring weights 1/2 as much as the SXY-500 is available with 50° & 70° deflection angles.

The highly efficient design provides for speed of layout, savings in material and cost. The SXY-500 provides super sensitivity for fast accurate response to the F-8's most sophisticated displays for guidance, weapon display, tracking. And ensuring the precision of the image. You can now display designs with more freedom to the terms of CELCO's new achievement. Further information is a "must" for state-of-the-art display designers. CELCO invites you to write or call for your detailed SXY-500 catalog data sheet.
